

1) What is the national grid?

2) How does a step-up transformer work?

3) Draw the current-voltage graph for diode.

4) Design an experiment to determine the specific heat capacity of milk.

5) A heater has a power output of 150 watts. Calculate the time taken for the heater to transfer 12 joules of energy to the milk.